Near Glasgow National Hockey Centre

- Glasgow Green Live Zone
Celebrate with fellow Games supporters at Glasgow Green and enjoy Commonwealth culture and music, food fairs, live performances and more. There is also the opportunity to join the Glasgow Green Opening Ceremony Party (ticket required).
- Merchant City area
Amble through the Merchant City and experience the variety of restaurants, bars, cafés, theatres and art venues which contribute to the cosmopolitan feel of this area. It was historically known as the Tron, trading place of many tobacco lords, and includes the Britannia Panopticon Music Hall – where Stan Laurel cut his acting teeth.
- Merchant City Festival
Experience Glasgow's annual multi-arts celebration, Merchant City Festival, where the streets will be animated with the best of international and Scottish street performance, music and food.
- 'On Common Ground', Citizens' Theatre, 25–31 July 2014
First Nation storytellers from Manitoulin Island, Canada, come together with a cast of over 150 Glaswegians to tell a story of community, family, the natural world and the bonds we share as they create a memorable spectacle that celebrates the best of both cultures.
- Style Mile shopping
Glasgow is the UK's largest and most successful shopping location outside of London. You'll find stores ranging from niche to high street – from unique local designers to flagship stores for an array of British and international retailers.
- 'The River' (Barrowland Ballet), Empire Café, Briggait, 20–21 July and 24 July–1 August 2014
This is a story told through dance, live music and song as the 150-strong cast take you on an emotional journey. Just as a river replenishes itself, so does the culture of the city built alongside it. The River celebrates the creation of this transient and vibrant environment.
